New Scrap Drive To Start March 1

Collection Is Timed With Spring House Cleaning

Spring Scrap Collection begins on March 1, and continues through April 30. Timely as it is with spring housecleaning, victory gardening and Spring planting for farmers, the Spring collection will prove an impetus for suburban residents to dispose of every scrap of metal that is not actually needed for the maintenance of efficiency.

The War Production Board has asked for a collection of 13,000,000 tons of scrap during the six months' period ending June 30. Of this total amount, Pennsylvania has been asked to collect over a million and a half tons, or 23 percent of the total tonnage needed to keep our steel mills in operation on war contracts throughout the summer months.

Pennsylvania's 67 counties have been asked to supply enough scrap for the building of 131 war vessels, a challenge to the record of salvage that Pennsylvania has already made.

Warren R. Roberts, chairman of the Advisory Committee on Salvage in Pennsylvania, speaking in Harrisburg, said, "I think when the roll of states is called at the conclusion of this collection, Pennsylvania again will be found at the top."

Luncheon To Open Red Cross Drive In Ardmore Tuesday

Robert E. Bondy, Red Cross national administrator of services to the armed forces, will address the War Fund luncheon of the Main Line Branch Tuesday.

The luncheon, starting at 12:15 at the War Fund canteen, Suburban Square, Ardmore, will open the 1943 War Fund drive in this area. Frederick W. Dreher, chairman of the War Fund, will preside.

Dr. Joseph Fort Newton, of the Church of St. Luke and the Epiphany, Philadelphia, will deliver the invocation. Community singing, directed by John D. Raymond, director of vocal music at Lower Merion Senior High School, will be featured, and Joseph L. Eastwick, chairman of branches for the War Fund of the Southeastern Pennsylvania Chapter, will explain the purpose of the War Fund. There will be selections by the Pennsylvania Railroad Quartet, and the Rev. Eugene A. Kelly, of St. Columban's Church, Ardmore, will close the program with the benediction.

Rationing Board Moves On Monday

The Ardmore Rationing Board, handling rationing matters for the Ardmore districts and Narberth Borough, will move into the former office building of the Main Line Keystone Automobile Club on Monday. The new office is at 66 E. Lancaster av., across the street from the present headquarters of the rationing board in the Lower Merion Township Building.

R. H. Harman, chairman of the Board, said yesterday that more office space would facilitate the handling of ration cases and speed up the work.

Navy League Recruits Women War Workers

Mrs. Robert Kerus, 608 Conshohocken State rd., Cynwyd, and Mrs. Hugh Robinson, 200 North Narberth av., Narberth, have been named as interviewers to serve at the free Consultant Bureau to be conducted starting March 1, by the Navy League Service at 1109 Market st., Philadelphia, to enroll women in war jobs.

The Nells have been requested by the U. S. War Manpower Commission to help recruit 83,000 women in this area to take jobs in local plants which are making war material.

School Land To Be Used For Gardens

The Lower Merion School Board has given permission to have its school properties at Hag's Ford and Righter's Mill rds. and also on Dartmouth rd. in Cynwyd used for victory gardens.

Permission was asked by Mrs. Owen J. Toland, chairman of the Victory Gardens Committee of the Lower Merion Defense Council.

Missing In Action

John Dixon Missing Parents Informed Narberth Man Was On Convoy Duty with U. S. Navy

A service flag with three blue stars hangs in the window of the house at 124 Conway av., Narberth.

The stars represent the three sons of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dixon — John James Dixon, Swanton first class, U. S. Navy; Corporal Edward T. Dixon and Private first class Francis J. Dixon.

Today, there is sadness in the house. Word has been received by the boys' father and mother and sister, Mrs. Robert A. Murray, that John is missing in action.

Only the formal telegram has been received. No details or explanations.

Just about a month ago John was home for two days. He had been on convoy duty for some months then and knew that he would probably go out again as soon as he went back to his boat, but he didn't know where he would be sent, and the Dixons haven't heard from him since.

After his training period, the Navy sent John to the far corners of the world. On one trip he went to Scotland, another to Murmansk, Russia, and Archangel; later he went to Iceland and on the trip he had just finished when he was home in January, he had been to Newfoundland.

While he was home, he spoke, at the request of Mrs. Eugene Davis, to a large assembly of her students at the Overbrook Elementary School. He told the boys and girls all that he was permitted to tell of his trip to Murmansk, of the

No Thought Of Rationing Clothes Declares Harman

The Ardmore War Price and Rationing Board has received official word that there is no intention or thought of rationing clothing now or at any fixed date.

Declared Henry R. Harman, chairman of the Board, the nation's textile supplies and productive capacity are more than ample for any conceivable rate of consumption and only large-scale hoarding would make rationing necessary. The only apparent reason why rationing of clothing might become necessary would be because of excessive buying and hoarding of clothing by the general public. There is no reason for the panic buying of clothing which is now going on in some places.

Services Held For Miss Mary Schaich

Funeral services were held Tuesday at the home for the aged, 10 Sabine av., Narberth, for Miss Mary Schaich, who died Saturday at the home after a month's illness. She was 79.

The Rev. Bryant M. Kirkland, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, conducted the services.

Miss Schaich was a member of the Presbyterian Church and the Evangelical Circle of Kings Daughters. She has done a great deal for the Home.

There are no survivors.

There are 46 men employed in the School District whose age range is included in the War Manpower Commission's directive.

Don Rose Speaks At Legion Meeting

Joint Session of Post And Auxiliary Held At Elm Hall

Wednesday night at Elm Hall — the Community Building being closed until mid-March because of the oil shortage — the Harold D. Speakman Post of the American Legion and the Women's Auxiliary held a joint meeting and provided a program of many attractions.

In addition to the members, there were many others present, including representatives from the Cynwyd and Bryn Mawr Auxiliaries.

Ann Bickford rendered several violin selections in a finished manner, her mother Mrs. J. M. L. Bickford, accompanying her on the piano.

Walter O'Sullivan, well-known Borough resident and now a Commander in the Navy, regaled the audience with sidelights of his experiences since he left Narberth for Panama two and a half years ago.

Guest speaker was Don Rose, Bulletin columnist, who delivered a thoughtful homily with modern newspapers as his text, and he seemed to believe that front-page emphasis on physical disasters and on individual departures from acceptable codes hardly afforded any particular contribution to the general theme of the good life.

The meeting was also addressed by Commander John C. Baxter, Ninth District, American Legion.

Post Commander Douglas C. Miner, of the Speakman Post, acted as chairman.

Refreshments were served by the members of the Woman's Auxiliary, no announcement being made as to the origin of the excellent coffee.

Rotary Hears Talk On Club Service

E. Stanley Bowers, a past president of the Philadelphia Rotary Club, addressed the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club on Tuesday at its weekly luncheon meeting at the Overbrook Golf Club.

Bowers, who was introduced by Dr. Richard Mears, chairman of the day, spoke on club service.

To and Fro He Goes

Candidate HENRY A. SMITH, Jr.

After nearly a year overseas, he returns to America to go through Officers' Training School.

It was almost exactly this time last year that the Army sped him across the seas, a five weeks' sail landing him in Ireland on St. Patrick's Day in the morning, a good time for any man to arrive in the Emerald Isle.

There Corporal Henry A. Smith, Jr., yelet "Hank", stayed until last month, when he was bid pack his kit once more, this time for a return journey, and happy lad he was to see Lady Liberty in New York Harbor last week-end.

The purpose of the hieira was so that "Hank" would go through the Officers' Candidate School at Fort Lee, Va., an appointment which had been diverted in 1941, as a rush call came for good quartermasters for overseas and the lieutenant which was in sight at that time had to be postponed until the more pressing work had been accomplished.

Henry was inducted in November of 1941, hence was only three months in the Service before he was tumbled aboard ship, and it wasn't long before he was made a corporal.

After ten weeks' schooling, he will probably be going across the big pond once again, nobody being more experienced in that respect and none more immune than he from mal de mer.

Henry, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Smith, 21 Windsor av., was born in Narberth and is one of the Borough's most popular young men.

Denounces Attempt To Boost Assessments As High As 65 Per Cent In Business Center

Business Council Solicitor Cites Four Examples Where Increases Are Recommended; Claims It Would Be An Injustice At This Time; Letter Is Sent To Councilman Carr

In a six-page letter denouncing the attempt to increase the tax burden of merchants during wartime, John E. Flynn, solicitor for the Narberth Business Council, gave four examples this week where assessment increases ranging from 12 1/2 to 65 percent have been recommended for business properties.

His letter was addressed to Henry P. Carr, chairman of the finance committee of the Borough of Narberth.

The solicitor for the Business Council took strong exception to the methods employed in trying to raise assessments of business properties. He referred to a meeting attended by representatives of Borough Council, the School Board, the tax collector and the assessor.

"It seems to me that at a meeting of such importance it might have been advisable to have called in some representatives of the taxing public. Certainly when it became obvious that the entire tax structure of the business area was to be over-turned, it would at least have been wise to consult with some of the representatives of the business area."

The Business Council's solicitor referred to a letter he received from Carr:

"Certainly anyone who has been at all concerned with the levying of taxes or the assessment of properties must be aware that under no circumstances can an increase of from 12 1/2 percent to 65 percent in one year be justified. I can imagine the dismay that would sweep the community if suddenly without warning the tax rate was increased in such a manner."

In the latter part of his letter the solicitor told Carr:

"Certainly you must agree that there could not have been a worse time to increase taxes on business properties by as much as even $1. In the first place, there are four or five vacant business properties in Narberth now, one of them being vacant solely because the merchant could no longer get goods to sell."

"The present position of the surviving merchants is not to be envied. They are operating under price ceilings, their labor costs have increased their abilities to serve have been limited and will

Princeton Choir At Presbyterian Church

The Princeton Seminary Choir of 20 young men's voices will sing at Narberth Presbyterian Church at 4 p. m. Sunday.

David Hugh Jones composer and organist, will direct the group. Dr. Henry S. Brown, vice president of the Seminary, will be in attendance.

Instead of the regular informal Sunday evening service this week, the young people of the church will meet in the pastor's study for an illustrated lecture on missions in South America, followed by a fellowship sing. Loyal K. Graham is in charge of the lecture and projections.

The Book of Ezra, from the Old Testament, was discussed last night at the Wednesday evening prayer meeting. These sessions are being devoted to Bible study.

"Middle America" Film At Overbrook Church

A motion picture entitled "Middle America" will be shown at the Overbrook Presbyterian Church on February 28, at 7:30 p. m., immediately following Youth Vespers. The film which is in technicolor with sound and portrays the history and life of the Mayan people in Guatemala and Central America, is furnished by Lester W. Minchin, Wynnewood, head of the United Fruit Company, Philadelphia.

Library To Close Until March 15

Due to the fuel oil shortage the Narberth Community Library has been forced to close until March 15. Arrangements have been made to renew automatically all books which may fall due during the period the Library remains closed.

Income Tax Assistance

Two representatives from the Office of the Collector of Internal Revenue will be at the National Bank of Narberth on March 3 to assist with the making out of income tax returns.

NARBERTH SCHOOL NOTES

The current sports activity at Narberth Public School is basketball. Girls in the seventh and eighth grades and the boys in the sixth, seventh and eighth grades have organized teams, and the play once a week during their gym periods.

Gives Rolls Royce Cars To Automotive Shop

Last week J. B. Thayer, treasurer of the University of Pennsylvania, donated two Rolls Royce automobiles to the automotive shop at Lower Merion High School.

Thayer's chauffeur has been taking one of the welding courses for war workers.

Engines of the automobiles will be used for practical study.

LETTERS FROM OUR MEN IN SERVICE

Editor's Note: The following letter from John A. Miller, Jr., was sent to a personal friend who apologizes for having delayed several weeks in passing it along for publication.

Received your wonderful Christmas package this morning and just can't say thank you well enough. It sure is a fine thing to know how the folks back home are rooting for us. I wish you would express my thanks and appreciation to the rest of the committee, and I know the rest of the fellows join me when I say I shall never forget Narberth. In geographical size, it is small, but when it comes to brotherly love and helping out the other fellow, Narberth is immeasurable.

Practically everything that you folks have sent me will be going with the very soon, and I know I shall use everything hundreds of times.

When I was home on furlough I thought to myself several times how wonderful Narberth looked. Crossing the country, I saw towns and cities of all sizes, but when the train stopped at Narberth I couldn't get off fast enough.

Sincerely,

JOHN A. MILLER, JR.

I want to thank all the people of Narberth, from the bottom of my heart for sending me these well Christmas presents. Keep up the good work and Victory will be ours.

Norristown Stands Between Lower Merion And 2nd Straight Unbeaten Loop Campaign

Lower Merion High School's undefeated basketball team rings down the curtain on its league campaign when it travels to Norristown Friday night. The Maroon needs a victory to complete its second straight season with a perfect record in Section One of the Suburban Conference and to boost its three-year league streak to 29 in a row.

It will be the final tuneup for Coach Bill Anderson's proteges before they start the defense of their state title in the District One, P. L. A. playoffs that start next week-end.

Norristown gave L. M. its toughest league battle, being the only team to hold the locals even in field goals, and another rough, give-and-take struggle is anticipated. The Maroon has been pointing to this game with the hope of convincing Norristown fans that it

Class of 1945 — Lower Merion High School

As one passed the Cynwyd Club last Friday night he might have thought the world had come to an end, but 'twas only the lads and lassies of L. M. celebrating the basketball victory over Abington High at the annual Bulldog Bounce.

The music was furnished by Doug Deakin's with his recordings of popular tunes. Soft drinks were served to the thirsty jitterbugs as they danced away the evening.

The proceeds from the dance will be divided equally between the school paper and the Boys' Hi-Y, the sponsors.

When the dance broke up at 12:30 a. m., the eclipse of the moon was well underway, so even the old man in the moon helped to make the dance one which was enjoyed by all.

The recently formed Victory Corps held another meeting February 18. Mr. V. V. Pearce, vice-principal, opened the meeting with the announcement that L. M. students who wish to raise a Victory Garden this spring, but have no ground for such a project, may secure the needed land by making application to the Local Civilian Defense Council in Ardmore. He also explained that the township, in order to encourage the planting of Victory Gardens, will plow the land given to the student by the Council, at a very small cost, and will also test the soil and possibly furnish seeds wholesale. It was suggested by Mr. Pearce that a committee should be appointed who would take requests from the students for land and then, after contacting the Council of Defense, tell the student where, and how large a plot the Council has laid aside for him. It is the aim of the committee to acquire land for the student as near as possible to his home.

Suggestions for the promotion of War Savings Bonds and Stamp Sales at L. M. were then asked for. Mr. Pearce was much impressed by a suggestion that Victory Corps members sell stamps in his home-room every day before school.

thrills and hazards of convoy duty in a submarine-infested sea.

The schoolboys and girls thought he was wonderful.

"He did a marvelous job," says Mrs. Davis.

Before he enlisted in the Navy, John worked at the Autocar Company in Ardmore. In his leisure time, he was an ardent baseball fan, and played occasionally, though not on any organized team.

"He's certainly a fine, all-round fellow—a real boy," says Edward O. Ensinger, superintendent at the community grounds who has watched a generation of Narberth boys grow up and come to know them well as they played there.

John attended St. Margaret's Parochial School in Narberth and later graduated from Lower Merion High School.

On his way back to his boat after a furlough, John stopped in New York to pick up his Christmas gift package from the people of Narberth, which had been held there for him.

It was a small thing, but perhaps it expressed to John something of the high esteem in which he is held by all his fellow townsmen.

The Warden

Shoots the Works

The local air raid warden of a small mountain village invented his own scheme for warning the community—but it didn't work very well.

Receiving the blackout order by telephone, he stepped to his porch and fired his shotgun. The shot severed a power circuit, which fell on the telephone wires and burned them through. The blackout was perfect, but for some hours the village had no lights, no power, no telephone service, no all-clear signal, plenty of confusion.

Since the whole civilian defense system depends so much upon swift telephone communication, telephone lines must be kept clear during and after air raid warnings. Please remember—for your own protection—when the sirens sound, don't use the telephone! The Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania.

JOIN THE RED ARROW LINES WOMAN CONDUCTOR CORPS

AN UNUSUAL OPPORTUNITY FOR INTELLIGENT YOUNG WOMEN

THE CORPS OFFERS: Men's Wages • Pay while training • Pleasant surroundings • Clean, interesting work • Special club facilities

Young women with courage to undertake a man's job at a man's pay in the vital transportation industry, are invited to consider the Woman Conductor Corps of the Red Arrow Lines. Applications are now being received.

No experience is necessary to qualify.

Women are proving their ability every day to do magnificent work in many occupations formerly held

QUALIFICATIONS: Applicants for the Corps must be American citizens with a high school education or equivalent and should be between the ages of 25 and 40, attractive, dignified, intelligent, self-reliant and in good health. Physical examinations will be required.

Height and weight requirements range from a minimum of 5 feet 3 inches and 118 pounds, to a maximum of 5 feet 10 inches and 160 pounds. Intermediate heights and weights in proportion.

Character requirements are high and every applicant should be prepared to submit references that will permit closest investigation.

UNIFORMS: You will wear an attractive, custom-tailored uniform, designed especially for the Corps.

by men. So, even if you have never worked before, there can be a place for you in the Woman Conductor Corps of this fine transportation organization. If you enjoy contact with the public and would like a job where you will be "on your own", investigate this opportunity now. The work is clean, dignified and requires no hard labor.

Accepted applicants will be paid $34.00 a week during a brief training period. Then, upon your appointment as conductor on a Red Arrow Lines high-speed rail car, you will rank equally with men conductors in hourly rate of pay. You will be assigned to duty in the suburban territory between 69th St. Terminal and Ardmore, West Chester, Media and Sharon Hill.

PRIVILEGES: You will enjoy free transportation over all lines of the Company. You will have free privileges in a fine, club-like headquarters building, established especially for the women of the Corps, with rest rooms, locker rooms and recreation lounge—all for your exclusive use.

undoubtedly be more limited. Of necessity their profits must be less. Any such increase in taxation cannot help but do them an injustice. None of them complain about doing their utmost in the present emergency, but they do seriously complain about being taken advantage of when no necessity for it exists."

Solicitor Flynn gave the case history of the following four properties on which assessment increases have been recommended to the Montgomery County Board for the Revision and Assessment of Taxes:

1. Max's Market, 227-229 Haverford av.

This property had been continually assessed at $8,000.00 from 1934 up to and including 1942. During that time there have been three different Assessors in Narberth. You will also note that although nine years passed, no allowance was ever made for depreciation. Suddenly in 1943 the value was raised to $9,000.00, or an increase of 12½%. The building had in no way been improved and no reason appears for such an increase.

2. The White property, 222 Haverford av.

In 1932, when the present Assessor was also functioning as Assessor, this property was assessed by him as being then worth $13,500.00.

In 1934, the County Commissioners employed Thomas K. Ober, 3rd, a Civil Engineer, to make a survey of the business areas of Narberth, for assessment purposes. I am advised that Mr. Ober had likewise been used for the same purposes in other parts of the County. I am likewise advised that he spent over a month in the Narberth business area. He measured the lots and buildings, considered the types of buildings, their use, the value of the land and the depreciation of the buildings. I have before me both his work sheets and a summary of his work covering some seventy properties. He placed a then value on the property of $23,850.00, or on a 50% assessment basis; an assessment of $11,925.00 would have been justified.

Eight years later this same property, in 1942, was being assessed at $11,000.00. Considering the depreciation, this value does not seem out of line.

In 1943, however, the assessment was increased to $18,000.00, an increase of over 65% in one year although no improvements justified the increase.

3. The Davis property, 224-226 Haverford av.

From 1932 to 1939 three appraisers, the present appraiser being one, assessed this property at $8400.00. In 1939 some improvements were made and in 1940 the assessment was increased to $9,000.00. This increase would appear to be justified by the improvements that were made.

In 1943, although there had been no further improvements, the assessment was increased $12,000.00, or an increase of 33.3-3%.

4. The Ricklin property, 203-205 Haverford av.

The history of this assessment is likewise interesting. After the new store was built in 1941, the assessment was set at $10,000.00. This figure was arrived at, not by guesswork, but by the intelligent action of the Board of Assessment. I am advised that they visited Narberth, inspected the premises, took pictures of it, cubed the building and finally after careful consideration, assessed it at $10,000.00. That was about two years ago. This year, although the building had not been improved, the assessment was increased by 25%.

Autocar Head Gets Word Of Son's Death In Pacific

Second Lieutenant Peter Mayo Page, 23, of the U. S. Marine torpedo plane forces, has been killed in action in the Southwest Pacific.

Word of his death, without any explanatory details, was received Saturday afternoon by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Page, Jr., 200 Golf View rd., Ardmore. His death was the first, so far as is positively known, among more than 600 Autocar men now in service. His father is president of the Autocar Company, Ardmore.

Lieutenant Page was born in Wellesley Hills, Mass. He was still a small boy when his father was elected president of the Autocar Company and the family moved to Ardmore. He was graduated from the Haverford School in 1937 and from Princeton University in 1941.

From his early years, Peter Page revealed an outstanding proficiency in athletics and later concentrated particularly on golf. He became one of the best known amateur golfers in the east. At Princeton, he was a member of the university golf team for three years and established a unique record when he was elected its captain in his junior year and again in his senior year, the first man ever to captain two Princeton golf teams. He was president of the National Intercollegiate Golf Association, which included all collegiate golfers, and captain of the All-Eastern Intercollegiate team in 1941.

Lieutenant Page enlisted as a Naval Air Corps cadet in November, 1941, and started his training at the Philadelphia Navy Yard. Two months later he was sent to Pensacola and then to Miami, where he got his wings in August, 1942. His rating was so high that he was immediately assigned to the Marines and, after additional training in dive bombing, he was transferred to a torpedo squadron. He came home on leave last September and then went to San Diego, Cal., where he completed training in torpedo tactics. He left there with his squadron, late in December, for the Southwest Pacific.

He is survived by his parents and by two brothers, Lieutenant Robert P. Page, 3rd, U. S. N., and Lieutenant Page, of the Ordnance Branch of the Army.

Norristown, and Charles K. Hal-lowell, Drexel Building, Philadelphia, in conducting the Victory Garden Conference. The 128 members of the Gardeners Association through their chairman, Harry Wood of Swarthmore, have informed both county and local Victory Garden committees that they will assist in promoting the garden program this year.

The afternoon program at Ardmore will include a talk on use of lime by Kenneth Hankinson. Organizing and administering community gardens will be discussed by J. O. Kenecy, Walter R. Douthett, and Fred H. Moore. J. M. Huffington of State College will show colored pictures of successful gardens in 1942. The place of flowers and grass this year is the subject assigned to Fred Raine.

At the evening session three Victory Garden chairmen - Mrs. E. F. Rivinus, Philadelphia County; Harold Graham, Montgomery County, and J. F. Styer, Delaware County - will explain the proposed garden program in their respective counties. Other speakers in the evening include M. E. Farnham, Harry O. Wilcox, J. W. L. Gatenby, T. E. ### WEEKLY NEWS LETTER

TO YOU WHO LIVE AND BUY IN NARBERTH

For the housewife there may be many pitfalls ahead in a changing war world. But to the housewife who is willing to think ahead, many pennies may be saved and the safety of her family protected.

Here are a few OPA hints for the week:

To avoid registering canned goods many housewives are attempting to transfer food from commercial cans into glass jars. OPA warns it is dangerous and may result in food poisoning.

Unessential frills on shoes have been eliminated by order of WPB which also limited the height of heels on women's shoes, and restricted colors to black, white, army russet and town brown. Shoes to be discontinued include men's patent leather, men's sandals, men's and women's spiked golf shoes and women's formal evening slippers.

Prices of foods under OPA control since May rose six percent from December 15 to January 12 to a level of 1.8 percent above last May. Prices of uncontrolled foods (about 10 percent of the family food bill) decreased 2.3 percent and now stand 27.2 percent above the May level. This is the first decline in prices of uncontrolled foods since May.

Ice cream cones cannot be sold for more than the highest price charged by the store in March 1942. The same ruling applies to dixie cups and other packaged ice cream.

Don't think that the attendant at the filling station is neglecting his old time courtesy if he asks to see your gasoline ration book, checks the windshield sticker and the license plate before beginning to pump the gas. He is only doing his patriotic duty in carrying out the provisions of the rationing regulations for safeguarding your mileage ration from misuse.

Within the next two or three months, price control will be extended to most fresh vegetables, one of the last remaining items on the average family's budget not yet under the price curb. Price ceilings have already been placed on white potatoes and onions as well as on canned and dried vegetables.

P. S.—An individual, a business council, a town grows, through constructive suggestions. You may have one that would point the way to a better future. If so, address it to the Narberth Business Council, Narberth, Pa. It will be confidentially treated and carefully considered.

Point Rationing Easy Says Whiteside

One! Two! Three!
That's how simple point rationing is, according to J. J. Whiteside, grocer, at 237 Haverford av.

Explains the grocer:

One—the blue stamps in your War Ration Book Two are for canned and processed fruits, (including spiced) vegetables, canned fruit and vegetable juices, dried fruits and vegetables, canned and dehydrated soups, chili sauce and catsup. Two—the numbers on the stamps tell you their point value.
Three—the letters tell you when to use them. On March 1 every American housewife will begin to use War Ration Book Two when she goes to market.

THE FIRST RATION PERIOD is the month of March — during which, each person will have 48 points to spend (if none have been deducted for excess stocks).

OFFICIAL TABLES OF POINT
VALUES will be posted by every food store. Each food store must display these prominently so all customers may see them. The retailer must also mark points on the container or on, or near the shelf bin.

EVEN WITH OUR NEW POINT
RATIONING SYSTEM we are still going to be the best-fed nation on earth. Rationing does not mean under-nourishment, skimping or hunger. It does mean that we are sharing our war-scarce foods and helping to feed the men who are fighting for Victory.
